Jonah 2

Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from the belly of the fish, ² saying,
"I called out to the LORD, out of my distress,
and he answered me;

out of the belly of Sheol I cried,
and you heard my voice.

³For you cast me into the deep,
into the heart of the seas,
and the flood surrounded me;
all your waves and your billows passed over me.

⁴Then I said, 'I am driven away
from your sight;

yet I shall again look upon your holy temple.'

⁵The waters closed in over me to take my life;
the deep surrounded me;

weeds were wrapped about my head

⁶ at the roots of the mountains.

I went down to the land

whose bars closed upon me forever;
yet you brought up my life from the pit,
O LORD my God.

⁷When my life was fainting away,
I remembered the LORD,

and my prayer came to you,
into your holy temple.

⁸Those who pay regard to vain idols forsake their hope of steadfast love.

⁹But I with the voice of thanksgiving
will sacrifice to you;

what I have vowed I will pay.

Salvation belongs to the LORD!"

¹⁰And the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah out upon the dry land.
