St. Michael and All Angels

September 29 on the church calendar is a day to honor St. Michael and All Angels.

The day falls near the equinox, the day associated with the beginning of autumn and the shortening of days. The festival has served as a reminder to people in the northern hemisphere that in the darker and colder days of life we are encouraged to find protection in God and His holy messengers.

The liturgical calendar of the church over the years had become overloaded with festivals and commemorations. Hence the day to observe all angels together.

Pastor's Perspective

Zion Family – peace be with you on this beautiful day! As we say goodbye to summer and look forward to changing weather and cooler temperatures, we also celebrate as some of God's ministries at Zion – and some in collaboration with Grace, Shepherd of the Cross, and New Era – resume and others continue. If you've ever asked yourself "How can I be involved at church?," there are MANY possible answers.

Here is a short list of ministry opportunities that happen every week at Zion within the context of Sunday worship services:

Ushering

Greeters

Assisting Minister

Reader/Lector

Communion Assistant

Musical Offerings

Altar Guild

Audio/video technician

Other ministry or volunteer opportunities during the week include, but are not limited to:

Zion Quilters (Tuesday mornings in the multipurpose room)

Garden of Eatin'

Counting offering

Zion Bell Choir

Zion Choir

Ministry of Literacy – An after school literacy program to assist identified students in closing the learning gap. This group meets on Tuesdays and Thursdays during the school year and for a four week period in the summer. Adult volunteers are welcome. Please contact Grace Lutheran for more volunteer information.

Emmaus Café – we serve in rotation with other congregations to serve a noon meal at First Presbyterian Church. Signup sheets are on the bulletin board upstairs.

Laundry Love – a ministry which helps people with washing clothes at MidTown Laundry on the 4th Thursday of each month. There is a morning session and an evening session.

We also have faith formation opportunities for people of ALL ages. Zion offers Sunday School on Sunday mornings after worship for our pre-K through 6th grade kids. Adult Bible Study meets following the 9 a.m. worship service, the first session beginning September 22nd, running through November 17th. We will start the year with Making Sense of Martin Luther, a book and video study. Participant books are now available in the church office or on the round table upstairs.

"Sorry Not Sorry": The perfect laugh-out-loud romantic comedy by Sophie Randal Free right now on Kindle Unlimited.

‘Absolutely brilliant... I devoured it in a few hours because it was impossible to put down... Be prepared for a rollercoaster of emotions... Had me laughing all the way through... Perfect.’ Goodreads Reviews

Is this all there is? I scraped the last dregs of Caramel Chew ice cream out of the bottom of the tub with my finger and licked it. It left a sticky smear on my phone’s screen when I typed into Google, “How to find love, sex and happiness.” Charlotte has always been a good girl. But being good is getting boring... She’s not just stuck in a rut – she’s buried in it up to her chin. The only company she has in bed is the back catalogue of Netflix and falling in love feels like the stuff of fairy tales.

God's Work. Our Hands.

It is a Zion fall tradition to join the ELCA in "God's Work – Our Hands". For 2024, our project of choice is the Muscatine "Sleep in Heavenly Peace". SIHP volunteers construct beds for local kids that lack their own bed to snuggle in for a good night's sleep. Our part is to give new twin size sheets, pillowcases, pillows and comforters for those wonderful new beds.

Muscatine "Sleep in Heavenly Peace" has a great Web Page at <https://shpbeds.org/chapter/ia-muscatine/> that gives project details. There're "buttons" to order the bedding on their Web Page if you want to do that. They also have a Facebook Page filled with pictures of volunteers working on the project. On September 15 at our worship service and/or hospitality hour there will be presentations to provide us more information. Learning is an important part of this project. Zion members will learn and share. Kids will be better prepared for good learning days with a good night's sleep in their own comfy cozy bed.

The donation carts are out by the Zion office door to accept your donation of new twin size sheets, pillowcases, comforters and twin size pillows. Also SIHP accepts designated monetary donations given through your individual Zion offerings. Please indicate on the memo line of your check that it is for Sleep in Heavenly Peace (SHP).

God's work. Our hands.

LSI Article and Story

September 2024 – Impact of In-Kind Donations

At LSI, in-kind gifts (non-monetary) are just as impactful as financial donations. Director of Philanthropy, Deb Whitford was inspired by the song “If I Could Dream” by Elvis Presley. She wondered, “What would I dream about for our clients? What would our clients dream for?”

A Story by Deb Whitford:

When is a yardage not just pieces of fabric? In the hands of someone learning to sew, fabric becomes a blank canvas of possibilities. A nearly empty closet containing the few items a refugee could fit in their suitcase when traveling to the US turns into a place of pride when filled with hand-sewn clothes made from that fabric. If I could dream...I dream of curtains for bare windows and cloth to cover worn tables. I dream of the magic of small pieces of fabric fitting into beautiful patterns in quilts to brighten homes and become treasured wraps providing comfort and warmth. These dreams are becoming a reality thanks to the generosity of an LSI donor.

Connie Hansen from Audubon, Iowa, is no stranger to fabric and sewing. Connie has enjoyed sewing for much of her lifetime. In her younger years, she shared her passion for sewing, serving as a 4-H leader in Melville Township, sewing clothes for herself and daughter. Through the years, her love and passion for quilting has grown friendships with others who love the craft. Connie dreamed of keeping her newest neighbors warm with her remaining fabric and donated the yards to LSI. This fabric will be used by our newly resettled immigrant and refugee families to create quilts and clothing, helping them feel more comfortable in their new homes. We hear about dreams every day at LSI from our direct service providers, team members, and clients. Thanks to your generosity, these dreams can become reality.

Help our clients’ dreams become reality by donating in-kind gifts to LSI. To learn more, contact philanthropy@LSIowa.org.

For more information, please contact Deb Whitford, LSI’s Director of Philanthropy and Church Relations, at Deborah.Whitford@LSIowa.org or 563-676-2065.

Our Mission: Lutheran Services in Iowa responds to the love of Jesus Christ through compassionate service. We proudly serve people of all ages, abilities, religions, sexes, gender identities, national origins, ethnicities, races, and sexual orientations. You can (pun intended) donate these recyclables to our youth program!

Contact Stacey Ramos 563-571-0363 or the church office to coordinate having our junior high and high school youth come pick them up from your house and take them to the redemption center.
