Holy Communion Everlasting Light Liturgy Setting

A very merry Christmas to all who come to celebrate and worship on this holy night! This service is intended to be welcoming for people of all ages, and especially kids. As you come in, there are ribbons of various sorts available for the kids and we will use them during the worship service. All children are invited to gather with Pastor Willie at the back of the nave for the beginning of the worship service and process in waving ribbons with our gathering hymn, O Come, All Ye Faithful.

Thank you for joining us! If you are visiting us today, please fill out a Visitor Card, located in your pew rack, if you would like to have us contact you.

We practice an open communion table at Zion. All who believe in Christ as Lord and Savior are welcome to celebrate Holy Communion with us, from the youngest to the oldest members of the body of Christ present in worship.

Children are welcome to fully participate in worship. What could be better than the whole family of God being together in worship? There are Children's worship bags available near the usher's table in the narthex. Should you or your child need a break, there is a nursery located across from Fellowship Hall for your use.

Nursing mothers are welcome to use the Mothers' Room, just two doors down the hall from the nursery. Please knock before entering.

This evening we will end the worship service using candlelight or LED finger lights while singing Silent Night. The acolytes will pass the light from the Christ candle to the congregation. Please dip the unlit candle into the lighted candle to prevent the hot wax from dripping on hands, clothing, or pews. LED finger lights are available for children or those who would prefer to use them. Thank you for joining God's community of faith gathered at Zion Lutheran church as we celebrate the birth of Christ our Lord! Please join us again!

Thank you to all our musicians who will help with tonight's service, including the Pusateri Quartet, Jennifer Rosin, and Isabelle Rosin on French Horn.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

BELL CALLING US TO WORSHIP

INTROIT O Come, All Ye Faithful

Maggie Kiddoo, violin

INVITATION TO WORSHIP

We have waited and waited.

And imagined a savior.

We imagined power.

One like the world but stronger and on our side.

We imagined a king on a white horse wielding a sword.

We got a baby born in a stable among the cows and sheep.

We imagined that he would destroy our enemies.

We receive a baby who will teach us our calling to seek peace and to love another as God first loved us.

Praise be to God for the unexpected babe of Bethlehem.

Praise to the wisdom of love.

Welcome to worship on this holy night in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen!

Let us pray.

Almighty God,

You made this holy night shine with the brightness of the true Light. Help us to walk in the light of Jesus and on the last day wake to his shining glory. We ask all this through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

‡ WORD ‡

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song

FIRST READING

Isaiah 9:2-7

This poem promises deliverance from Assyrian oppression, a hope based on the birth of a royal child with a name full of promise. While Judah's king will practice justice and righteousness, the real basis for faith lies in God's passion for the people: The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this!

² [a] The people who walked in darkness

have seen a great light;

those who lived in a land of deep darkness—

on them light has shined.

³ You have multiplied the nation,

you have increased its joy;

they rejoice before you

as with joy at the harvest,
as people exult when dividing plunder.

⁴ For the yoke of their burden,
and the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor,
you have broken as on the day of Midian.

⁵ For all the boots of the tramping warriors
and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.

⁶ For a child has been born for us,
a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders;
and he is named

Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

⁷ His authority shall grow continually,
and there shall be endless peace
for the throne of David and his kingdom.

He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness
from this time onward and forevermore.

The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

Titus 3:4-7

The appearance of God's grace in Jesus Christ brings salvation for all humanity.

Consequently, in the present we live wisely and justly while also anticipating the hope of our Savior's final appearance.

⁴ But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, ⁵ he saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the water^[a] of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit. ⁶ This Spirit he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, ⁷ so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

+ THE LORD'S PRAYER

Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us, using the language of your heart:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

A child has been born for us, a Son given to us. Come, receive the gift of Jesus.

LAMB OF GOD

O Lamb of God you take a-way our sin; have mer-cy on us, give_ us your Please come forward for communion as directed. We will serve communion by continuous distribution with one station for bread in the center and a station for wine on each side. Please receive wine from the side on which you are sitting and return to your seat by walking down the side aisle. If you are unable or would prefer not to come forward, please inform one of the ushers and communion will be brought to where you are seated. If you do not wish to receive communion, you are welcome to come forward with arms crossed to receive a blessing. Gluten-free wafers are available in the separate small dish on the bread tray. Please let Pastor Willie know if you would like a gluten-free wafer. If you wish to receive grape juice rather than wine, please indicate this preference by approaching the communion server with your hand out and palm down. The grape juice is located in the center ring of the communion tray. All who believe in Christ as Lord and Savior, young and old, are welcome at this feast.
